

TANGANYIKA

No. 10 OF 1964

I ASSENT,

Julius K. Nyerere
President

5TH MARCH, 1964

An Act to provide for the Preservation and Protection of Sites and Articles of Palaeontological, Archaeological, Historical, or Natural Interest and for matters connected therewith and incidental thereto

ENACTED by the Parliament of Tanganyika.

1. This Act may be cited as the Antiquities Act, 1964, and shall come into operation on such day as the Minister shall, by notice in the Gazette, appoint. Short title and commencement

2.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Interpretation

“relic” means any movable object made, shaped, painted, carved, inscribed or otherwise produced or modified by human agency before the year 1863, whether or not it shall have been modified, added to or restored at a later date, and any human or other vertebrate faunal or botanical fossil remains or impressions;

“appointed day” means the day appointed by the Minister in accordance with section 1;

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner for National Culture;

“Conservator” means the person for the time being appointed to perform the functions of Conservator of Antiquities;

“discovery” means the finding on or under land, or in anything growing on the land, or attached to or within the fabric or foundations of any structure of any object, site or structure the presence of which was previously unknown to the owner thereof, but does not include the recognition or identification as a relic, or as a relic of a particular description, of any movable object previously in the known possession of any person, unless such object was so found;

“Honorary Antiquities Warden” means a person appointed by the Commissioner under section 22;

"Minister" means the Minister for the time being responsible for antiquities;

"the Museum" means the National Museum of Tanganyika;

"monument" means-

- (a) (i) any building, fortification, interment, midden, dam or structure erected, formed or built by human agency before the year 1863, or the ruins or remains thereof; and
- (ii) any rock painting or carving or any natural object painted, incised, modified or erected in Tanganyika by human agency before the year 1863; and
- (iii) any earthwork, trench, adit, well, road or other modification of the soil or rock, dug, excavated or otherwise engineered by human agency before the year 1863, whether or not it shall have been modified, added to or restored at a later date and whether or not it is included in a list published by the Commissioner under this section, and

- (b) any other place, site or structure declared to be a monument under section 3, and includes such adjoining land as may be required for the purposes of fencing, covering or otherwise preserving the monument from injury;

"protected object" means-

- (a) any wooden door or door frame carved before 1940 in any African or oriental style; or
- (b) any object declared by the Minister under the provisions of section 9 to be a protected object.

(2) The Commissioner may from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, publish lists of monuments, and the inclusion of any place, site or structure in any such list for the time being in force shall be prima facie evidence in all proceedings, whether criminal or civil, that the same is a monument within the meaning ascribed to that expression in paragraph (a) of the definition "monument" in subsection (1). Any person aggrieved by the inclusion of any place, site or structure in a list published under this subsection may appeal therefrom to the Minister.

MONUMENTS

Declaration of places of historical interest as monuments

3.-(1) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, declare any place, site or structure of historical interest to be a monument for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order under this section may apply to the Minister for a review of the order.

Control of monuments

4. (1) The Commissioner, and any person authorized by him, may, at all reasonable times-

- (a) enter and inspect any monument;
- (b) fence, repair and otherwise protect or preserve any monument;
- (c) search and excavate for relics in any monument and remove any relics hitherto undiscovered:

Provided that-

- (i) where the monument is a place of ordinary habitation or occupation, the Commissioner and any such person aforesaid shall give the occupier not less than forty-eight hours' notice in writing of his intention to exercise any of the powers specified in this subsection;
- (ii) nothing in this section shall authorize-
 - (A) the exclusion of the owner or any person beneficially interested in a monument, or any person authorized by him, from any part of the monument;
 - (B) the excavation of any monument, or any search for relics in a monument which is a place of ordinary habitation or occupation without the consent of the owner.

(2) Any person who willfully obstructs the Commissioner or any other person authorized by him in that behalf in the exercise of his powers under, subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

5.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), no person, whether beneficially interested therein or not, shall do any of the following acts to or in relation to any monument or protected object declared as such by the Minister under section 3, or included in a list published by the Commissioner under section 2 and for the time being in force, or to any other place, site or structure which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be a monument, that is to say-issue of such licence, as the case may be, or if the Commissioner has not issued a licence or refused to issue the same within two months of the application, within a further period of two months, serve notice on the Minister requiring him to elect whether to direct the issue of such licence or the removal of such conditions, as the case may be, or to acquire the monument, and the Minister shall make an election accordingly.

(2) Where the Minister elects to direct the issue of a licence or the removal of any such conditions, he shall, within one month of his receipt of the notice requiring him to make an election, give such directions to the Commissioner and the Commissioner shall forthwith give effect thereto.

(3) Where the Minister elects to acquire the monument, he shall, within one month of his receipt of the notice requiring him to make election, serve a notice or notices under section 5 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance, and, subject to the provisions of section 26 of this Act, the provisions of that Ordinance shall apply to the acquisition.

(4) This section shall apply to a monument-

- (a) which is included in an order made by the Minister under section 3; and
- (b) is situated in a municipality, or within the area of a town council or a township; and
- (c) is a place which was habitually used prior to the making of the order for habitation, commerce, trade or industry and has been continually so used thereafter.

RELICS AND PROTECTED OBJECTS

Relics discovered in Tanganyika to be property of Republic

8.-(1) Every relic discovered in Tanganyika, whether before or after the appointed day, other than a relic properly included in a list delivered to, and signed by, the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of section 17, shall be the property of the Republic:

Provided that the Commissioner may, on behalf of the Republic, disclaim the ownership of any such relic, and upon such disclaimer the property of the Republic, and any property of the President, therein shall be extinguished.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall apply to any relic discovered in Tanganyika before the appointed day which is, on that day, in the possession of or held on trust for the Trustees of the Museum or the trustees or other governing body of any other museum, university or similar institution to which the Minister may extend the provisions of this subsection.

Protected objects

9.-(1) The Minister may, by order in the Gazette, declare any object or class of objects discovered or made in Tanganyika and being of palaeontological, archaeological, historical or natural interest to be a protected object.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any order made under this section may apply to the Minister for a review of the order.

DISCOVERY AND EXCAVATION

10.-(1) Any person who, discovers a relic or monument, or any object or site which may reasonably be supposed to be a relic or monument, in Tanganyika, otherwise than in the course of a search or excavation made in accordance with a licence granted under section 13, and the occupier of any land who knows of any such discovery on or under such land, shall forthwith report the same to an administrative officer, the Commissioner, the Conservator or the Curator of the Museum. The discoverer of such a relic, monument, object or site shall take such steps as may be reasonable for the protection thereof and shall, where he makes a report concerning a portable relic or object, if so required (and on payment of the cost of delivery if any) deliver such antiquity or object to an administrative officer, the Commissioner, the Conservator or the Curator of the Museum, as the case may be.

Discovery
of relics
and

(2) Every administrative officer to whom a relic is delivered or a report is made under this section shall forthwith report the same in writing to the Commissioner.

(3) The Trustees of the Museum shall maintain a register of all matters reported to the Curator under this section and shall permit the Commissioner or any person authorized by him in writing to, examine the same and any antiquity or object delivered to the Curator and, if the Commissioner does not disclaim any such antiquity in accordance with the provisions of section 8, shall deliver the same to him at his request.

(4) The Commissioner and any person authorized by him in writing, may enter upon any lands and inspect the site of any monument or supposed monument or the site of the discovery of any relic or supposed relic required to be reported under this section.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of subsection (1) or (3), or who obstructs the Commissioner or any person authorized by him in writing in that behalf in the exercise of his powers under subsection (3) or (4), shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

11.-(1) No person, except the Commissioner or a person acting in his behalf, shall, whether on his own land or elsewhere-

- (a) excavate, dig or probe for monuments or relics; or
- (b) remove any relic hitherto undiscovered from any monument, or collect or remove any object which he supposes to be a relic from the site of its discovery, otherwise than for the purposes of preserving the same and reporting the discovery under the provisions of section 10 or in accordance with a requisition under that section, except under and in accordance with an excavation licence issued by the Commissioner.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

12. An excavation licence shall be granted only to a person who satisfies the Commissioner-

- (a) that he has had sufficient scientific training or experience to enable him to carry out the proposed excavation or search satisfactorily; and

MISCELLANEOUS

17.-(1) Every person in possession on the appointed day of any relics discovered in Tanganyika before the appointed day shall within six months after the appointed day deliver to the Commissioner two copies of a list describing such relics to the best of his ability. Upon being satisfied that the relics described in any such list are properly included therein, the Commissioner shall sign one copy of the list and return it to the person by whom it was delivered.

Relics found in Tanganyika
before the

(2) At any time within a period of two years after the appointed day-

(a) the Commissioner may, on payment by him of the costs, if any, of delivery, require any person for the time being in possession of any relic included in a list delivered under this section, to deliver such relic to the Commissioner;

(b) the Commissioner may require any person who has been in possession of any such relic at any time during such period but has since disposed of the same, to, inform the Commissioner of the name and address of the person to whom he disposed of it.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any requirement of the Commissioner under subsection (2), or who in purported compliance with such a requirement gives the Commissioner any information which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

(4) The Commissioner and any person acting on his instructions-

(a) may carry out tests and examinations on, and may photograph and make casts, squeezes and other reproductions of, any relic delivered to him under this section; and

(b) shall return the relic to the person by whom it was delivered to, the Commissioner within one year of its being so, delivered.

(5) Neither the Commissioner nor any person acting in accordance with his instructions shall be liable for any damage to, or loss of, any relic delivered to the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this section unless occasioned by his gross negligence or willful default.

(6) Nothing in subsections (1), (2) or (3) of this section shall apply to the Trustees of the Museum or to the trustees or other governing body of any other institution to which subsection (2) of section 8 extends.

Burden of

18. In any proceedings, whether civil or criminal-

(a) in connection with a relic or an alleged relic, proof of the object being in Tanganyika at any particular time and of its having been made, shaped, painted, carved, inscribed or otherwise produced by human agency before the year 1863 shall be evidence of its having been discovered in Tanganyika, and the burden of proving-

(i) that the object was not discovered in Tanganyika; or

(ii) that it was discovered in Tanganyika before the appointed day and included in a list delivered to and signed by the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of section 17,

shall lie upon the person asserting the same:

Provided that where any such person satisfies the court that the object has been in his possession, or in the possession of himself and any identifiable person or persons from whom he derived title, for a period of not less than six years, or that he, or an identifiable person from whom he derived title, imported the object into Tanganyika, the burden of proving the discovery thereof in Tanganyika shall revert to the person asserting such discovery;

(b) in connection with a monument or relic, or an alleged monument or relic, a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Conservator that the relevant place, site, structure or object was made, shaped, painted, carved, inscribed or otherwise produced or modified by human agency, or erected, formed, built, incised, dug, excavated or otherwise engineered by human agency, before the year 1863, shall be evidence of the matter stated therein.

 - (b) regulating the sale and exchange of monuments;
 - (c) regulating the conduct of excavations;
 - (d) prescribing the powers and duties of Honorary Antiquities Wardens which may include powers and duties conferred or imposed by the Act on the Conservator other than those under sections 2, 8, 13, 14, 15, 17, 20 and 21;
 - (e) prohibiting and regulating access to monuments;
 - (f) restricting and regulating the charging of entrance fees to, monuments;
 - (g) prescribing anything which may be prescribed:
- Provided that no, rules under the provisions of Paragraph (e) or (f) shall restrict, otherwise than by limiting the charging of entrance fees therefor, the entry of the owner or any person beneficially interested therein, or any person authorized by such owner or person, from entry into or upon any monument.
- Application of Land Acquisition Ordinance 26. Where the Minister determines to acquire any monument in accordance with the provisions of section 6, or elects to acquire a monument in pursuance of section 7, the acquisition shall be deemed to be an acquisition for a public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Ordinance, and the provisions of that Ordinance shall have effect as if the references therein to the President (other than those references relating to the vesting in the President of any title to the land acquired), and to the Minister for the time being responsible for lands, were references to the Minister for the time being responsible for antiquities:

Provided that—

- (a) the provisions of section 17 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance shall not apply where the Minister elects to acquire a monument under section 7 of this Act; and
- (b) in assessing the amount of any compensation payable, no account shall be taken of any palaeontological, archaeological or historical value unless the person entitled to compensation paid any sum referable thereto when he acquired his interest in the land.

27.—(1) The Monuments Preservation Ordinance and the Monuments (Preservation) Ordinance are hereby repealed. Repeal
and amendment
Caps. 233
and 327

(2) Section 2 of the Land Acquisition Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting paragraphs (g) and (h) of the definition “public purposes” therein.
