(4) If in respect of goods which have been handled or warehoused by the operator, an account delivered is found to be false in any material particular to which it purports to relate, an authorized employee may refuse to deliver the goods unless a rate or charge not exceeding double the rate or charge payable for any class of goods is paid.
28.- (1) Where any person fails to pay on demand made by an authorized employee, any rate or charge due from him in respect of any goods, the authority may detain the whole or any part of the goods or, if they have been removed from the possession of the authority any other goods of such person which may be in, or may thereafter come into, the possession of the authority.

(2) Where any goods have been detained under subsection (1), the authority may, if the rate of charge due is not sooner paid, sell by public auction goods sufficient to produce the rate or charge so owing and all the expenses of such detention and sale shall, in the case of-

(a) perishable goods, such auction may take place at once; or

(b) any other goods, such auction may take place on the expiration of at least fifteen days' notice of the intended auction published in one or more local newspapers.

(3) No imported goods shall be sold under this section until they have been entered in the customs records as being for home consumption.

(4) The authority may, out of the proceeds of any sale effected under subsection (2), retain a sum equal to the rate or charge due and expenses of the detention and sale; and shall deliver the balance, as remain unsold to the person appearing to the authority to be entitled thereto.

(5) If after notice such person fails to remove within a reasonable time such goods, or remaining unsold, the authority may sell such goods and dispose of the proceeds of such sale in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the right of the authority to recover any such rate or charge, or any part thereof, by any other lawful means.

29.- (1) Where any goods in possession of the operator are not claimed by the owner or any other person appearing to the operator to be entitled to such goods, the operator shall, if such owner or person is known, take all reasonable steps to cause a notice to be served upon him requiring him to remove the goods.
(2) If -

(a) the owner of any goods in the possession of the operator is not known and no person appears to be entitled to the goods;

(b) the notice referred to in subsection (1) cannot for any reason be served; or

(c) there has been a non-compliance with the provision of any notice served under subsection (1).

the operator may, within a reasonable time not being less (except in the case of perishable goods) than three months, sell the goods and dispose of the proceeds of sale thereof.

(3) No goods shall be sold under this section until they have been entered for home consumption in accordance with the provisions of the customs laws.

30. Where-

(a) any goods, or the proceeds of the sale of any goods are in the possession of the authority and such goods or proceeds are claimed by two or more persons; or

(b) any person claiming any goods in the possession of the Authority does not produce the documents showing that he is entitled to take delivery of such goods, the operator may withhold delivery of such goods or proceeds, until the person appearing to the Director-General to be entitled to the goods has given satisfactory indemnity against the claim of any other person over such goods or proceeds.

31.- (1) No person shall tender to the operator for handling or warehousing any goods to which this section applies without giving notice of the nature of such goods to the authorized employee to whom such goods are so tendered.
(2) An authorized employee may-

(a) refuse to accept such goods for handling or warehousing or accept them only under, and in accordance with, any special provisions dealing with the handling or warehousing of any such goods; or

(b) require any such goods to be marked and packed in such manner as he may reasonably direct.

(3) Where any authorized employee has reason to believe that any goods to which this section applies are being handled or warehoused, or have been accepted for handling or warehousing in contravention of subsection (1) or (2), he may examine such goods and if found to be goods to which this section applies he may order their removal from any vehicle of, or premises occupied by, the operator.

(4) Goods to which this section applies are any dangerous or offensive and any goods which are likely to cause damage to person or property.

(5) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the provisions of any law relating to the possession or transportation of explosives, petroleum, fire arms or ammunition.

32.-(1) No person shall be entitled to compensation for non-delivery of the whole of a consignment of goods, or for any separate package forming part of such consignment, accepted by the Authority for handling or warehousing unless a claim in writing, giving such particulars as may reasonably be necessary, is given to the operator within six months of the date upon which such goods were accepted by the Authority.

(2) No person shall be entitled to compensation for any goods missing from a packed or unpacked consignment or for misdelivery of, or damage to any goods accepted by the Authority for handling or warehousing unless -

(a) the operator is notified of such fact in writing within four days of the date upon which such goods were delivered to the consignee or person entitled to take delivery thereof; and
(b) a claim in writing, giving such particulars as may reasonably be necessary, is given to the within one month of such date.

(3) Where the person claiming compensation proves that it was impracticable for him to notify the operator, or give the his claim, as set out in subsections (1) and (2) within the time specified therein and that such notification or claim was made or given in reasonable time nothing in those subsections shall prejudice the right of such person to obtain compensation.

(b) shall be served on the person who committed the offence;

(c) shall be final and not subject to any appeal; and

(d) may be enforced in the same manner as an order of the High Court for the payment of the amount stated in the order.

(4) Where the Director General compounds an offence under this section, the person concerned shall not be liable for a penalty prosecution with respect to that offence.

PART XV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

87.- (1) Within the first twelve months from the commencement of this Act, the Authority shall adopt a code of conduct prescribing standards of behaviour to be observed by the members and employee of the Authority in the performance of their duties.
(2) After adopting a code of conduct, the Authority shall publish it in the Gazette and Annual Report.

88. Subject to the provisions of the Fair Competition Act, 2003, the Authority may grant a licence subject to such conditions it may impose to provide any marine or port service or facility, except in respect of those services and facilities exclusively provided by any operator under a concession agreement and in respect of services of representatives of shipping lines, shipping and liner agents.

89.- (1) Where damage is done to ports; equipment facilities and any property of the Authority by any vessel, vehicle, person or any floating object, the costs of making good the damage, including the expenses of any inspection or survey carried out by or on behalf of the Authority to ascertain such damage may be recovered by the Authority from the Master, owner or agent of the vessel, craft or floating object.

(2) The Authority may detain any such vessel or object until the costs of making good such damage and the expenses described in subsection (1) have been paid to the Authority or may require the Master, owner or person in charge of the vessel or object to deposit such sum of money or furnish such security as may be required by the Authority to meet such costs and expenses.

90. When any property, fixture or fitting belonging to the Authority is placed in or upon any premises not being in the possession of the Authority for the purposes of carrying out its functions, such property, fixture or fitting shall not be subject to distress nor taken in execution under process of court or any proceedings in bankruptcy against the person in whose possession it is.

91. All notices, orders, receipts and other documents and all information of whatever nature which the Authority is empowered to give under this Act or any other written law may be given by any means including digital, electronic and mechanical means.
92. Where any accident occurs in any port, then if that accident—

(a) is attended, or is of a kind usually attended, with loss of human life or with serious injury to any person or property;

(b) involves any collision between ships or vehicles carrying passengers;

(c) involves the derailment of any train, or any part thereof, carrying passengers;

(d) is of such other kind as the Minister may specify;

the Director General shall, as soon as practicable, give notice of the occurrence of such accident to the Minister and the Board and, in the case of any such accident involving injury to any person, also to police station or administrative authority nearest to the scene of such accident.

94.—(1) The Minister or the Board may order inquiry into any accident which occurs in any port as the Minister or the Board may deem necessary.

(2) In the case of an accident of the kind referred to in section 91, the Board shall submit to the SUMATRA and the Attorney-General a report on such accident setting out, inter alia, the probable cause of such accident and the steps, if any, which have been taken, or it has directed, shall be taken, with a view to avoiding a repetition of the accident.

(3) The Director General shall submit to the Minister and the Board a report in respect of any accidents occurring in any port.

95. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any member of the Board, or employee of the Authority or other person acting under the direction of the Authority personally for any thing done in good faith or intended to be done in the execution or the purported execution of the functions or the exercise of the powers of the Board or the Authority.
96.—(1) The Tanzania Harbours Authority Act, 1977, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding repeal of the Tanzania Harbours Authority Act, 1977, any scheme, contract, document, licence, permission or resolution prepared, made granted or approved under the Tanzania Harbours Authority Act, 1977, shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Act or in any other written law, continue and be deemed to have been prepared, made, granted or approved by the Authority under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

(3) Any subsidiary legislation made under the provisions of the Tanzania Harbours Authority Act, 1977 which were in force immediately before the appointed day shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, until such time as they shall be revoked, remain in force as if they were made under this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Made under section 6(3))

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The members of the Board shall elect a member from amongst themselves to be a Vice-Chairman of the board, and any member elected as Vice-Chairman shall, subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office for a term of one year from the date of his election, and shall be eligible for re-election.

2.—(1) A member of the Board shall, unless his appointment is sooner terminated by the appointing authority, or ceases in any other way to be a member, hold office for the period specified in the instrument of his appointment or, if no period is so specified, for a period of three years from the date of his appointment and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) Any member of the Board may at any time resign his office by giving notice in writing addressed to the appointing authority, and from the date specified in the notice or, if no date is so specified, from the date of the receipt of the notice by the appointing authority, he shall cease to be a member.
3. When any member of the Board is by reason of absence from the United Republic or illness or other sufficient cause unable to perform his duties as a member of the Board, the appointing authority may appoint a temporary member in his place, and the temporary member shall hold office until the resumption of duty of the substantive member or until the term of office of the substantive member expires, whichever occurs first.

4.—(1) The Board shall ordinarily meet for the transaction of its business at the time and at the places decided upon by the Board, but shall meet at least once every two months.

(2) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, may at any time call a special meeting of the Board, upon a written request by a majority of the members of the Board in office.

(3) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at every meeting of the Board. In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman the members present shall appoint a member from amongst themselves to preside over the meeting.

5. The quorum at a meeting of the Board shall be the majority of the members in office.

6.—(1) Questions proposed at a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (1), a decision may be made by the Board without a meeting by circulation of the relevant papers among the members of the Board, and the expression of the views of the majority of the members of the Board in writing, but any member shall be entitled to require that the decision be deferred and the subject matter be considered at a meeting of the Board.

7. The Board shall cause to be recorded and kept minutes of all proceedings of its meetings, and the minutes of each meeting of the Board shall be confirmed by the Board at the next meeting and signed by the Chairman of the meeting.

8. The validity of any act or proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among its members or by any defect in the appointment of any of them.

9.—(1) The application of the official seal of the Authority shall be authenticated by two signatures, namely-

(a) the signature of the Chairman of the Board or some other member of the Board authorized by the Board in that behalf; and
(b) the signature of the Director General or some other employee of the Authority authorized by the Board to act for that purpose in place of the Director General.

(2) Any instrument or contract which, if executed or entered into by a person other than a body corporate, would not be required to be under seal, may be executed or entered into on behalf of the Authority by the Director General or any other member of the Board if that member has previously been authorized, either specifically or generally by resolution of the Board, to execute or enter into that particular instrument or contract or that class of instrument or contracts.

(3) Every document purporting to be a document executed or issued by or on behalf of the Authority and to be-

(a) sealed with the official seal of the Authority authenticated in the manner provided by subparagraph (1); or

(b) signed by the Director General or by a member of the Board authorized in accordance with subparagraph (2) to act for that purpose, shall be deemed to be so executed or issued until the contrary is proved.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Board may regulate its own proceedings.

11. Any document purporting to be a document duly executed or issued under the seal of the Authority or on behalf of the Authority shall be received in evidence and be deemed to be a document so executed or issued (as the case may be) without further proof unless the contrary is proved.
